

Further embed the curriculum through school using cornerstones. Evaluate and update the resources used within the delivery of Design and Technology. Develop knowledge organisers for use across the school.

Ensure that all children are achieving and working to their full potential.

Create links with local secondary schools to access specialist equipment.

When D and T is a whole school focus, complete learning walks, book looks and pupil voice to ensure development of curriculum.

Continue to develop differentiation within lessons through the implementation of the Cornerstone's curriculum. Ensure that there is clear progression of skills and knowledge throughout the school.

Complete a thorough audit of all equipment in school.

Through a mentorship programme develop my own learning and skills to become an effective leader.

Develop cross curricular links between D and T and core subjects.

To develop a monitoring system for D and T. Seek support from HT with this.

Make links with specialist STEM teacher - Leanne Mee.