

Lesson 6

LO: To compare the human geography in Telford to a European City.

We are studying: Geography

We are learning about: The geography in our local area.

Last lesson we discovered:

Today we will learn:

Why different places have different human geographical features.

Similarities and differences between Telford and a European City.

We need to know this because:

It helps explain why places in the world are different.

Geography lessons focuses on these:

- Geographical data e.g. maps, graphs, bar charts.
- Geographical ideas - concept, ideas and theories
- Locational context - where they are studying and the significance.

What examples of human geography have we got in Telford?

What is human geography? Discuss the children's ideas, drawing out that it is anything in an area that is not naturally occurring - country or region boundaries, buildings, roads, and changes to river courses. It also includes cultural aspects of an area such as language, religion, government, art and music.

This is Saint Petersburg, a city in Russia:

*How does it differ to Telford?
(show on Google maps)*

Research St Petersburg as a class:

Human Geography St Petersburg

Name of area	Population	Main Language(s) Spoken	Religions Represented
St Petersburg, Russia
Main Types of Land Use	Major Towns/Cities	Landmarks/buildings
<input type="checkbox"/> residential <input type="checkbox"/> industrial <input type="checkbox"/> business <input type="checkbox"/> retail <input type="checkbox"/> leisure <input type="checkbox"/> agricultural

Human geography in St Petersburg

Finish these sentences:

St Petersburg is similar to Telford because

St Petersburg is different to Telford because