

Lesson 5

Who taught you in this session?		Teacher	TA	CS	1:1
Independent		Supported
Celebrating Difference
Child	PSHE: To understand the importance of learning from people from a different culture to mine.				Teacher
	SE: To appreciate the similarities and differences in aspirations between myself and young people in a different culture.
	I understand that communicating with someone in a different culture means that we can learn from each other.
	I can identify a range of ways that we can support each other.
	I appreciate the similarities and differences in aspirations between myself and young people in a different culture.
Lesson 5
Key vocabulary: Aspiration Dream Goal Culture Sponsorship Communication

What we might be able to offer to other countries in order to help them?

Has anyone raised money for charity? Or taken part in a community event or tried to support others?

What charities could we try and support that will in turn, help people in other countries, who are less fortunate than us?

Your activity today:

Do you know of any charities that support people and countries to around the world, to achieve their dreams?

Make a poster advertising an event or activity that could be done to raise money for that charity.

Brainstorm ideas on the next page:

